Disclaimer

It is advised that customers make payment via RTGS/NEFT at least one day in advance from the challan expiry date. In the event the customer makes payment from the last day and same is not available for the customer for validation on account of any reason whatsoever, then beneficiary, its banker, or e-procurement service provider or payment gateway service provider would not be held responsible in any manner.

It is Customer's responsibility to ensure that RTGS/NEFT payments are made exactly as per the details mentioned in the challan. In the event of any discrepancy, payment would not be considered and would not be available for validation of Invoice Payment.

Customer is required to generate challan for every offline payment since details in the challan are unique to the invoice and contract combination. Customer is not supposed to use challan generated in one invoice for payment against another invoice.

Under no circumstances, including whether the customer has made duplicate/incorrect payment, Beneficiary division or its banker or its service provider are under no obligation to disclose the details of payment made by any customer.

Any manual alteration in the challan shall not be accepted.
